

Benefits of RFI™

Here are a few benefits of RFI™ over traditional aura imaging devices:

- Small, Light weight and Portable
- Scans energy emanating from the body or object and gives accurate readings along with a detailed digital report
- Non-invasive and does not depend on other sources of information like Light or Biofeedback sensors
- Point Scan allows you to take readings of objects or specific locations in a human body
- Identifies emotional causes related to physical disorders (Psychosomatic diseases)
- Quickly scan chakras and suggest remedies while checking the before and after effects of it

What is RFI?

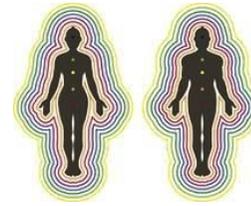

Resonant Field Imaging™ is an experimental electromagnetic measurement and imaging process. This new technology provides objective data and informative interpretations for all Auras and bioenergy fields, and identifies the type and function of bio-energies present in specific regions of the human brain.

RFI™ generates complete psychological profiles that fully reveal the role of a person's psychology in their health condition. RFI™ does give comprehensive information about a person's physiological conditions, psychological, chakras & brain scan and provides a technical level of information which trained physicians can use as a factor in their professional decisions.

Who can benefit from RFI?

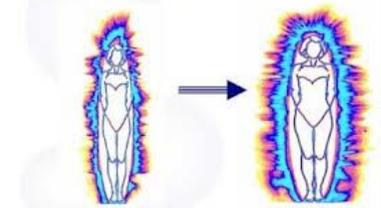

Health Care Professionals: RFI™ is highly beneficial for medical doctors, chiropractors, osteopaths, naturopaths, nurse practitioners, physical therapists, psychologists, psychiatrists, and a wide variety of therapists and spiritual & energy healers.

Feng Shui & Vastu Practitioners: RFI™ allows you to determine the identity, type and function of the energy fields that you detect anywhere - in the air, in spaces, near or on furniture, in different rooms, etc.

Hypnotherapist: RFI™ allows you to take a scan of the person's brain waves and helps you identify when the person is in a deep state of relaxation (Alpha or Theta) to increase the power of affirmations during sessions maximizing its effect

Wellness Consultants: RFI™ allows you to take a Before & After aura scan of an individual to objectively demonstrate the positive effects of your wellness products or remedies

Strengthening/Enhancing the BIOFIELD

What is Human aura or the Bioenergy field?

It is the energetic layer surrounding an individual or any object, Scientifically called as the Electromagnetic field. The strength of this energy field determines our physical, emotional/mental and spiritual health.

If the energy field is weakened due to any cause the effect can be seen as the deterioration of the health at all levels.

Maintaining a healthy aura is a key to good health.
